John O. Burley belonged to black tribe brother of Pete? Was about 50 when dad was 14 or 15. Lived somewhere near <sup>(where Theodore Huffman owns)</sup> Desert Lake. Had a daughter who married John Westbrook father of Henry W. & they lived where Henry Dixon lives now. Dad remembers seeing John O. (they an old man, at the time when he fixed Grandpa P's house on farm John W. was not so dark as Henry. John O. B. was a big heavy-set man & rather dark & broad shouldered.

(Grandpa Grandma Pa & Waltha?) went to funeral of a Freeman or Sanford? Burley, a young man who died near Desert Lake. It was after Pa had his leg broken. May have been John O. Burley's son who married the Deep woman.

Sanford Burley lived on S. bank of Hardwood Creek half mile east of bridge at lower Verona. Was killed by cedar tree directly south of house. Pa was about 8 or 10 when this happened. Grandma was outside at their house & heard groans & came in & cried. Shortly after a man came on horseback to tell of it. (The old shop was ~~down~~ down before Dad was a young man) Sanford was son of Burley who lived on Sycamore Hill? Was at this time old enough to have sons about 12-20 yrs old. Some of them were older & some younger than father. Dad went there sucker fishing with Grandpa when he was 12 (about) yrs old & Sanford was not there then. His boys Angus & Amos went along. Al. Peris father & mother had just been married & were living in the house with Burley's. Went to Conway's Bridge for the suckers on horseback.

Handwritten text on a piece of paper, likely a letter or document, placed against a dark background. The text is written in cursive and is mostly illegible due to fading and the quality of the scan. The paper is yellowed and shows signs of age. The text appears to be organized into several paragraphs, with some lines being more prominent than others. The overall appearance is that of an old, handwritten document.
